"A man's home is his castle" was never more true than it is today. And today it is possible to make a home a castle with the aid of small details.

We remembered this in creating our new residential and commercial lighting fixtures and so have catered to the ever increasing trend of the period consciousness of the consumer.

The completeness and variety of our line offers you a wide selection.

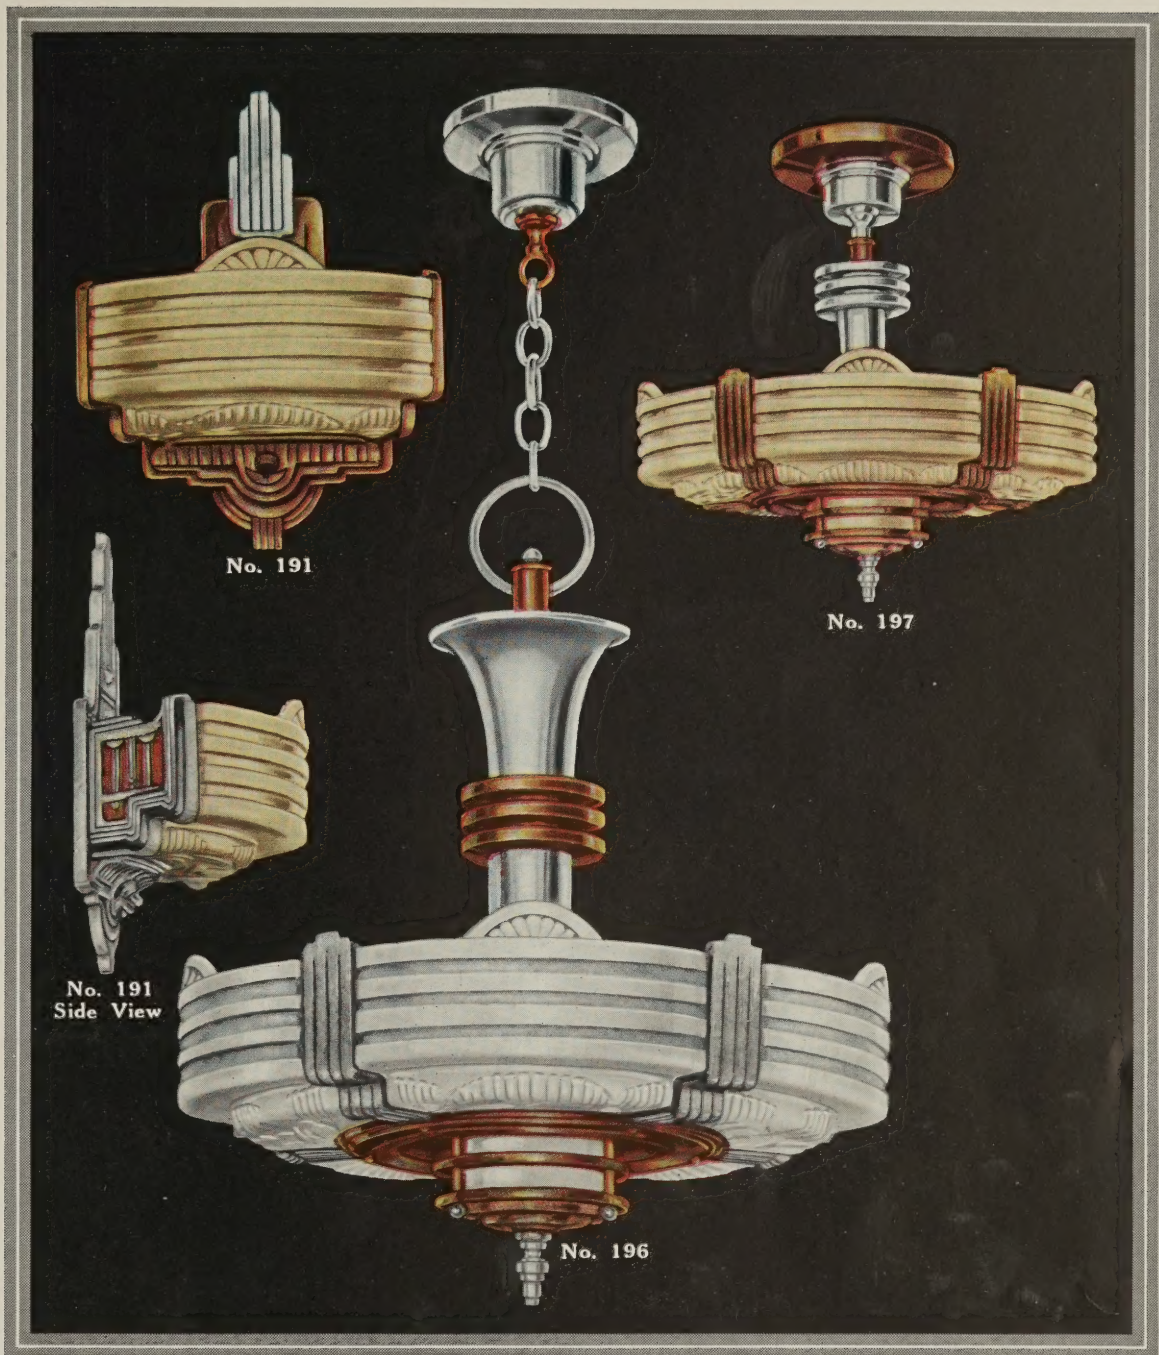

The economies of production recently initiated in our factory insures you a moderate price range.
